

GRANADA

Tempo rubato

Для баритона

A.Larra
(1900 - 1969)

The first system of the musical score for 'Granada' consists of three staves. The top staff is a vocal line for baritone, which is currently empty. The middle staff is the right-hand piano accompaniment, featuring a complex, rhythmic pattern of chords and arpeggios. The bottom staff is the left-hand piano accompaniment, providing a harmonic and rhythmic foundation with chords and moving lines.

The second system continues the musical score. The vocal line begins with a single note on the word 'Gra-'. The piano accompaniment continues with its intricate texture, including some melodic lines in the right hand and sustained chords in the left hand.

The third system is marked 'Andante' with a tempo of $J = 112$. The vocal line enters with the lyrics: 'na- da... Tier- ra soñ- a- da por mi. Mi can- tar se vuelve gi-'. The piano accompaniment features a more sustained and flowing texture, with long chords in the right hand and a steady bass line in the left hand.

The fourth system continues the vocal and piano parts. The vocal line has the lyrics: 'ta- no cuando es para ti... Mi can- tar e- cho de'. The piano accompaniment maintains its flowing, sustained texture, supporting the vocal melody.
